

Quality Care Close to Home

Award-Winning Care

We work hard every day to provide an outstanding level of care, and it shows. The American Health Care Association/National Center for Assisted Living (AHCA/NCAL) recognized Williamstown Commons with the Silver Commitment to Quality award in 2015, the second step toward the Gold Excellence in Quality recognition. This prestigious award is given to select communities across the nation that serve as models of performance excellence and continuous quality improvement in long-term care services. Consistent positive feedback on satisfaction surveys, conducted by an independent national firm, placed us among the top 5% in the nation.
